

FACULTY OF ENGLISH

Academic Visitor Information

What does the status of an Academic Visitor entitle me to?

We will provide Academic Visitors with:

- A letter confirming their status;
  - A University card, which provides access to the Bodleian and English Faculty libraries;
  - An email account;
  - Access to IT facilities;
  - Access to use the graduate common room and desk space in our graduate study area;
  - The right to attend undergraduate lectures and public seminars in the English Faculty
- Academic Visitor are not permitted to attend graduate classes.

Our administrative staff will help with the initial practicalities of your visit (such as arranging your university card, setting up your e-mail account and providing any documentation necessary to set up bank accounts or accommodation). However, they are not able to provide any further administrative support, such as helping with arranging accommodation, proofreading your work, providing secretarial assistance or identifying/arranging lectures for you to attend.

At no point, will you be able to attain a CV from any member of the English Faculty, nor should you contact them separately to gain this. Even if you require a CV to fulfil funding requirements; we will not be able to provide one.

The English Faculty is under no obligation to provide supervision or academic guidance to Academic Visitors; although this may be possible on occasion if arranged directly with individual Faculty members. you should not expect to have any opportunity to meet with Faculty members and discuss their research. Details of Faculty members, including their areas of interest, are available on the English Faculty website at www.english.ox.ac.uk/people. Most Faculty members spend the majority of their time in their colleges, and there is no central space where Faculty members meet and socialise. Academic Visitors can find this an isolating experience and you should be prepared for this before you arrive, particularly if you are staying for a long period.

You should note that there is no facility for Academic Visitors to become more generally involved in Faculty activities. You will not (for example) be able to attend Faculty Meetings or graduate seminars and receptions.

The fee for becoming an Academic Visitor is £1000 per term. Dates of term can be found on the University website at <https://www.ox.ac.uk/about/facts-and-figures/dates-of-term>. The academic year is divided into three terms and the long (summer) vacation.

Visas

Please note that English Faculty staff are not able to provide any guidance on visa applications. Visa guidance is available from the UKBA (<http://www.ukba.homeoffice.gov.uk/visas-immigration/>). You may also find the following guides helpful:

- Types of Standard Visitor visas
- <https://staffimmigration.admin.ox.ac.uk/files/overseasVisitorguideforacademics-pdf>.

We are obliged to check your visa status when you arrive at the University, so you should bring a copy of your passport and your visa with you when you collect your University card. If we find that you do not have the correct visa, we will be obliged to rescind your status as a Discretionary Member and we may have to inform the UKBA.

Accommodation

Finding accommodation in Oxford is difficult and is generally best investigated some months before your intended arrival. Accommodation itself can also be very expensive. If you are looking for accommodation in Oxford, you may find the following information sources of use:

- Righton: <https://rightonproperty.co.uk/>
- Experience Oxfordshire: <https://www.experienceoxfordshire.org/places-to-stay/>
- The Oxford Times: <https://www.oxfordmail.co.uk/homes/>
- The University Gazette: www.ox.ac.uk/gazette/. Please click on the most recent weekly edition for accommodation advertisements, which will be in the 'Advertisements' section of the gazette.

There are also several independent letting agencies such as:

- www.letting4oxford.co.uk/
- <https://www.oxfordmail.co.uk/homes>
- www.finders.co.uk/
- www.top-lettings.co.uk/

English Faculty staff cannot assist with finding accommodation.

Transport

Getting to Oxford from London is simple:

- Train: There are direct, express trains from London Paddington which take approximately one hour. Slower services stop at more stations and can take a little longer. Times and ticket prices can be found at: www.nationalrail.co.uk
- Coach: Oxford Tube (run by Stagecoach Bus Company), is the main coach service to Oxford, from London. Times, prices and collection/set-down points are available at: www.oxfordtube.com.

Connections from major airports are also regular and efficient:

- The Airline Coach (run by Oxford Bus Company), operates between Oxford and Gatwick, plus Oxford and Heathrow on an almost 24-hour basis. Times, prices and further details are available at: <http://airline.oxfordbus.co.uk>
- There is also the Heathrow Express train which operates between Heathrow and London Paddington. On arrival at Paddington travellers can connect with a direct train to Oxford, although the Airline coach mentioned above is a much quicker option. Further details are available at: www.heathrowexpress.com.

UK Bank Accounts

If you are staying for a sustained period, you may wish to open a bank account when you arrive in the UK. There are a number of 'high street' banks in the UK and all will provide special student accounts, if this is what you require. To open a bank account in the UK you will usually need:

- Proof of identity (passport)
- Proof of address (utility bill or receipt from your landlord)
- Opening deposit

You may also be asked for proof of association with the University, in which case your letter confirming Academic Visitor should suffice.

Payment of the Academic Visitor fee

You should pay your fee by credit card, if possible, at http://www.oxforduniversitystores.co.uk/browse/extra\_info.asp?compid=1&modid=1&deptid=110&catid=899&prodid=2101 (This link can be e-mailed to you if that is easier).

Alternatively, you can ask your home bank to issue a cheque for the fee made payable to 'University of Oxford' and present this to the English Faculty Office.

If your institution will be paying your fee:

- We can issue an invoice to them for the fee; please contact the English Faculty Office as soon as possible to arrange this
- They can issue a cheque made payable to 'University of Oxford', which you will need to present to the English Faculty Office

Payment is due on the date that your Academic Visitor commences.

IT Access

- N.B.
Please note, you will not, as a general rule, be able to use college libraries and if you wish to use other Faculties' libraries you will need to seek their permission in advance. There is no guarantee that such permission will be granted.

Confirmation letter at the end of your visit

It is not possible to prepare a letter outlining the research that you have undertaken whilst you have been in Oxford; if this is a requirement of your funders, you should be aware in advance that you may not be able to fulfil it. However, we can prepare a standard letter confirming that you have had the status of Academic Visitor and the periods of this. Please request this from english.office@ell.ox.ac.uk.
