

Boethius in Early Medieval Europe
Commentary on The Consolation of Philosophy from the 9th to the 11th centuries

Funded by The Leverhulme Trust, 2007-12, and based at the Faculty of English, University of Oxford

Workshop II

Editing the Glosses

Seminar Room (Level 0), Robinson College, Cambridge
Wednesday 1 July 2009

Participants

Malcolm Godden, University of Oxford

Rohini Jayatilaka, University of Oxford

Rosalind Love, University of Cambridge

Pádraic Moran, University of Cambridge and National University of Ireland, Galway

Prof. Katherine O'Brien O'Keefe, University of California, Berkeley

Sinead O'Sullivan, Queen's University, Belfast

Prof. Paul E. Szarmach, Director, Medieval Academy of America

Mariken Teeuwen, Huygens Institute, The Hague

Paolo Vaciago, Università degli Studi Roma Tre

The programme is informal, to enable us to talk about common issues of editing and methodology.

Mariken Teeuwen: 'Commentary on Martianus Capella'

Sinead O'Sullivan: 'Editing Books 1 and 2 of the Commentary on Martianus Capella'

Pádraic Moran: 'Editing Irish Glossaries and Glosses to Priscian'

Rohini Jayatilaka: 'Transcribing and collating glosses to the Consolation of Philosophy'

Paolo Vaciago: 'Recent Work on the St Gall glosses on the Consolation'

Rosalind Love: 'Editing the select edition of early medieval commentary on the Consolation'

Malcolm Godden: 'Editing the full corpus of early medieval glosses on the Consolation'